Piter Ivanov

Junior FrontEnd developer

I would like to change my current occupation from an engineer-architect to a web application developer. Over the course of 2 years I have been actively studying web development technologies HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, NodeJs. I have experience in team development of React applications. Also I have basic knowledge of creating Node.js server with MongoDB. I am interested in PHP and jQuery library. I would like to obtain a position in a company that offers interesting projects with growth potential in terms of individual and professional development.
